A NEW UNITY
ART + TECHNOLOGY

In 1923, the founder of Bauhaus, Walter Gropius issued a new motto -

Art And Technology – A New Unity

After a hundred years, his influence continues.

"n | u", the top performance line of VQ's products, is inspired from Walter Gropius. It comprises Quartz, Compound Stone and Terrazzo. n | u explores every possibility and pursues perfection in the crafting of engineered stone.

With ingenuity and perseverance in quality, n | u is your trusted partner for design of desires.

A Good Companion for Kitchen of Our Next Generation

The eco-friendly nature of n | u product provides high density and non-porous surface which is stain resistant and grout free. It minimizes maintenance and more essentially, bacterial growth.

CRAFTSMANSHIP

SURFACING TECHNIQUE

Customers may find blemishes on many usual engineered stone in the market, such as streaks, dullness, scuffs, pits and colour contaminants. It is more obvious on engineered stone with polish finish and viewing under light source. However this worry is no longer necessary.

n | u product is treated with exceptional surfacing technique, making its surface as sheeny as a natural stone, it is a no match in the industry.

TERRAZZO IS MOVING OUT FROM THE FLOOR

Once popular in use for flooring, terrazzo is widely applied to wall and countertop nowadays.

Such a contemporary re-engineering of a traditional materials adds punchy colour to the space and makes it more stylish and mesmerizing.

COLLECTIONS

Quartz | Terrazzo
Compound Stone

n | u product is all exceptional. The Quartz is made up of 93% quartz sands with low silica. Without compromise in quality, it is most suitable for heavy use like kitchen's countertop.

While the Compound Stone is versatile, the Terrazzo is leading the vogue of design nowadays.
